

A Daily Bible Reading Plan

The following Bible reading schedule was taken from a brochure that contains a well organized plan for reading the Bible in one year. The daily selections are uniquely arranged. The schedule is workable since it provides reading for 5 of 7 days a week and 50 of 52 weeks in a year. This printable version can be used for your convenience in checking off the readings as you complete them.

One of the best tools for reading the Bible is to go to the Daily Bible Reading web page, click on the Audio Bible icon (as shown on the left), select your scripture, and listen to Alexander Scourby read it. The scripture will also appear on the screen so you can view it at the same time. (Be patient for the material to start.)

This plan is highly recommended for students of the Bible. Get started today!

From the authors of the Daily Bible Reading plan -

We (eight of us) read the Bible in one year. You can too! Here's how.

Follow this special Bible reading system:

Five readings in a week taking approximately 20 minutes daily over a 50 week schedule (this allows for catch-up).

Try to read at a specific time each day, mornings are suggested. Keep a notebook handy to jot down questions, ideas, things to remember, etc. Have a support team that can encourage each other, and possibly meet monthly to discuss progress and topics of interest.

If you want to add to your spiritual development, make this part of your life. Doing something consistently for 21 days creates a habit. Begin now to develop the habit of reading God's word daily.

You too can know the joy this has added to our lives. May God bless you in this endeavor.
